REPORTS

REPORTS OF BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Report No. 1.

The capacity of man for development is the only apology for education, and as Christianity is pledged to the perfection of human nature and life, so the Church is committed to education. It is needless to remind you that mere intellectual culture is a danger to be shunned. While it is true that "brawn can never weigh with brain in the scales of destiny," it is a greater truth that brain without conscience is a power uncontrolled. It is the character behind intellectual power that makes it worthy of confidence, whether in the industrial, social or political world.

In this the Church has no competitor. The State may assume to educate, but its inability to deal with the profound truths and principles of Christian character, and its undetermined system of morals unfits it for the work of true education. This is no policy of the Church which seeks to conserve sectarian interests. It rests upon a deeper and broader basis. It is the question of salvation—a question beyond the functions and power of the State.

In view of the present efforts of our State to extend its higher educational enterprises, we feel compelled to remind this body, and the church which it represents, of the vital issues involved. We cannot afford to hazard the destiny of our youths by turning them over to the liberalism of State morals. We recognize Christ's imperial authority over every faculty and capacity of human nature, and the church stands pledged to the defense and development of His kingdom. We must insist that Christ is the foundation stone of our life and destiny. His character is the only standard of true education.

Wofford College.

We are glad to report to you the increased growth of this institution. From President Carlisle's report we learn that 151 students are enrolled in college classes, and that the character of the work being done is highly gratifying to the faculty. Considering the increased competition in male education, this report shows the wide and deep influence which Wofford College has upon our people.

From the report of the Trustees we learn that the working endowment is $59,929.00, yielding this past year, $3,510.00. The income from all sources was $9,452,03. The expenditures were $9,678.45. This showing renders the usual assessment necessary, and we therefore recommend that $4,000 be assessed for the necessary current expenses.

Columbia Female College.

The report of the Trustees from this institution shows it to be in fine condition. The building has been repaired and other necessary equipments added. Yet there are other improvements which must be made, and we call our attention to and ask your co-operation with the agent in his work.

There are now about 100 pupils in attendance, and with the co-operation of this Conference, we feel sure that this number can be increased. The debt has been reduced and no longer embarrasses the college.

We nominate Geo. W. Parker in the place of F. H. Hyatt, resigned, on the Board of Trustees.

Carlisle Fitting School.

The Head-master's report is very gratifying in every respect. One hundred and three students are enrolled from eight counties, showing the increasing influence of the school. Several entered the various colleges in the State, as the result of the first year's work. The curriculum has been extended so as to include the freshman class and prepare students for the sophomore class of Wofford College. No school in this Conference has more flattering prospects and we commend it to the confidence and patronage of our people.

Cokesbury School.

The paper referred to us concerning the lease of this school to a company, we have considered, and cannot accept the proposition with the information before us. We recommend that the Board of Trustees of Wofford College be appointed as trustees of this school as they now have charge of the Fitting School at Spartanburg and Bamberg, with the preacher in charge of the Cokesbury Church ex-officio member of the Local Board of Control.

Paine Institute.

The church is engaged in no missionary work more worthy of our attention than the education of colored teachers. The work has been carried on in the face of opposition growing out of our social environments, but the nature and character of the enterprise should lift it above such difficulties. President Walker deserves our sympathy and co-operation, and of this, we assure him. We call attention to the assessment of $700 for this school and ask that it be collected as early as possible.

S. B. JONES, President.
J. C. KILGO, Secretary.

Report No. 2.

There are five schools under the control of this Conference, viz: Wofford College; Columbia Female College; Wofford Fitting School; Carlisle Fitting School and Cokesbury Conference School. Statistics as follows:

Name of Institution.	Value Prop'ty.	Endowment.	No. Teachers and Officers.	No. Pupils.
Wofford College,	100,000	60,000	11	151
Columbia Female College,	50,000	.....	10	100
Wofford Fitting School,	12,000	.....	4	50
Carlisle Fitting School,	16,000	.....	5	103
Cokesbury Conf. School,	3,000	.....	2	42

LANE INSTITUTE.

Having already endorsed an appropriation for Paine Institute, we do not deem it advisable to make another call for the buildings at Lane Institute during the present year, yet we appreciate the importance of the work done by it.

REPORTS OF SUNDAY-SCHOOL BOARD.

Report No. 1.

How to make this work a burden upon the conscience of the Church has been the effort of succeeding Boards for many years. The influence of these reports, though difficult to trace, has doubtless been felt. The less the effect of each report, the greater the necessity for its repetition. In this, as in every other Church measure, the minister must lead in thought and suggestion. The pastor should encourage and aid the superintendent, and give shape to all Sunday-school work along the lines marked out in the Discipline and the most approved methods crystallized from experience. The superintendent should defer to, and often consult with the pastor, and both should constantly be exhausting new sources of information and exploring new fields in the experience of others. Greater unity of spirit and effort should be at all times sought. Inter-denominational work should be fostered. The force of unity cannot be over-estimated. By unity the best methods in the work of all may be explored and obtained, to say nothing of the value of increased efficiency in the field of operations. Books of instruction especially adapted to superintendents and teachers should be freely and constantly consulted. "The Model Sunday-School," by George M. Boynton, will awaken the conscientious superintendents and teachers to new life and improved methods. Each superintendent and teacher should also invent for himself as the ardent study of the needs of his work leads him to clearer conceptions of duty and of the best plans for carrying it on.

To interest the children in the work is easier than to enlist the sympathy and aid of the grown-up people and members of the Church.

Personal solicitation should be prudently and constantly employed to induce the "children of a larger growth" and, especially the parents, to attend and participate in the work.

The pastor should preach every quarter upon topics germane to this great work, and thus stir the zeal and conscience of the Church at large upon it. A false idea seems to have some hold upon the popular mind that the Sunday-school is for children and youths alone. The word "school" perhaps, induces this error, and, if so, should be substituted by some other.

This work is pre-eminently the work of the Church. As our Divine Master and the apostles taught, should this teaching be done. All secular learning has been discarded as pertaining to another sphere. The word of God—the incidents of faith, of salvation—the consuming, all absorbing work of educating the spiritual nature should dwarf every other consideration. As some needs cannot be supplied by learning or science, but by a higher, holier training, so the work of the Sunday-school must be addressed to the moral and spiritual nature in order that its forces may be brought into activity toward God. It is a sublime work. It comprehends, perhaps, more elements of religious capability than any other work within the pale of the Christian Church. It enlarges beyond self and home into the region of salvation for all mankind. Its scope is without limit. From the Sunday-school should go forth myriad laborers for Christ in all lands. The work of missions seems to be the test of the advancement of spiritual life in the Church. It cannot be less in the Sunday-school. For this reason, every Sunday-school should be organized into a missionary society. Your committee note with pleasure the progress of this idea and the income from this department of the work. They expect a large increase in souls saved in Sunday-schools where missions are aided by liberal contributions. With deep earnestness the Board would press the importance of adding the mission feature to every Sunday-school organization.

The employment of object lessons in the nature of pictures is deemed important. As is well known, a picture illustration fastens in memory the truth of a lesson. These can be procured at a moderate cost.

Your Board invite attention to reports and recommendations made by them and their predecessors, especially those of the last two Conferences.

They offer the following resolutions:

First—Resolved, That the work of the inter-denominational Sunday-schools be encouraged.

Second—Resolved, That the use of picture illustrations of the lessons be employed.

Third—Resolved, That every Sabbath-school be organized into a missionary society.

Fourth—Resolved, That every member of our Church, both clerical and lay, be requested to consult the previous reports and recommendations of the Sunday-school Board, for further suggestions as to the demands of this work.

Fifth—Resolved, That the whole amount of the Children's Day collections be sent to this Board for transmission to their proper places.

Report No. 2.

EPWORTH LEAGUES.

Recognizing the importance of the mental and spiritual culture of our young people, especially in the doctrines, history and polity of the Methodist Church; and believing that a society could be organized which would greatly promote this end, the General Conference of 1890 organized such a society under the name of Epworth League. The necessity of such an organization cannot, for a moment, be questioned.

We are sorry to report however, that in the South Carolina Conference, the results obtained through this organization have not been generally encouraging. Of the fifteen or twenty Epworth Leagues within the bounds of our Conference, not more than five or six are reported as accomplishing any real good, while the others have only a name to live. This, we fear is, in a large measure, due to the want of persistent effort upon the part of our pastors to organize and maintain them. Dr. Cunningham, Sunday-school Editor, reports that in other Conferences, and especially in the cities and larger towns, there has been steady growth in this organization, and it has been very useful in religious and charitable work. May it not be so in the South Carolina Conference? That more interest may be taken in this institution of our church, we recommend:

1st. That our Pastors, during the next Conference year, make especial efforts to organize an Epworth League in every congregation, where five or more young persons can be induced to become members of the same.

2d. That the Presiding Elders make it a point to enquire at each Quarterly Conference into the number and state of Epworth Leagues in each charge, and that they encourage the organization of them wherever practicable.

3d. That the Leagues within the bounds of our Conference group themselves into Conference organization which shall have its officers and constitution and by-laws, and which shall meet annually at such time and place as may be agreed upon by its members.

4th. That the social feature be vigilantly guarded that it may not predominate the mental and spiritual.

5th. That this Conference memorialize the approaching General Conference to make Presidents of the Epworth Leagues, members of the Quarterly Conference in which they are located.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

That the great mass of our people do not read, is a fact to be regretted, and one to which we cannot be blind. The Methodist Church will never be able to work out the grand purpose which God has for her so long as this state of things exists. The religious literature of our Church, its books and periodicals, must receive more general circulation. The spirit of the age demands intelligence in all departments of activity, spiritual as well as material.

The report of the Publishing House at Nashville, Tenn., is highly gratifying in its financial feature. The House is in a position to pay all its outstanding indebtedness. This being the case, we hope that a reduction in the prices of books will now follow. We have authority for the statement that the circulation of books published by the House increases every year.

The Quarterly Review is a publication ordered by the General Conference, and is now being published at a loss to the Publishing House of over $1,800 a year. If the Review were taken more generally by our ministers and laymen, it could soon be made a periodical of high rank. The mechanical execution is excellent.

The Nashville Christian Advocate maintains its high standard. It is recommended to our people.

Our own Southern Christian Advocate should be in universal circulation throughout the bounds of our Conference. The subscription list is small compared to the number of Methodists in the State. The imperative is on us to circulate our own paper among our own people.

Your Committee recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That we earnestly exhort our preachers to circulate our literature, especially The Southern Christian Advocate, and books teaching the doctrines, history and polity of Methodism.

J. M. KNIGHT, for Committee.

REPORT OF BOARD OF COLPORTAGE.

The Board of Colportage beg leave to report that they have made a careful canvass of the interests of the Colportage work in the Conference, and have only to recommend that our pastors and laymen co-operate with the General Colporteur in the distribution of our books and periodicals among our people.

Respectfully submitted.

W. A. BETTS, Chairman.
W. I. HERBERT, Secretary.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

Your Committee beg leave to present the following report:

We have carefully considered this subject, and feel assured that the cause of temperance is advancing and gaining strength every day. We are satisfied that a great revolution has been progressing for several years, and is still working in the minds of our people, both Methodists and the multitudes about us. Common and public drinking, common among even the best classes, has grown uncommon and disgraceful, and our young men are, to a large extent, growing in habits of sobriety. These are signs of better things, and give us courage and hope for the future.

We consider this improved condition to be the result of the temperance agitation of the last decade or two, in which period, there has been much preaching, talking and practicing of total abstinence.

Let us continue to work, pray and preach on this line, reaping while we sow.

As a church, let us be true to the law laid down in our Discipline; as individual members, let us continue to practice and advocate real temperance; and ere many years, the barrooms and their traffic will be things of the past.

J. E. CARLISLE, Chairman, for the Committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE.

The Bible is God's thought as it touches humanity. It is that word which is life and which is spirit—the wisdom of God and the power of God. Its teachings reveal God's purpose and plan in the great work of human redemption through his Son. Its leaves for the healing of the nations are scattered everywhere, and we hail with great pleasure the American Bible Society as an important and potent factor in this great work. We rejoice to know that it is translating and circulating this blessed book in many of the languages of the earth. It is a great helper to our missionaries in foreign fields as well as to our Sunday-schools at home, and we should give it that recognition and support it so richly deserves.

The District Superintendent, Rev. Dr. Law, informs us that only fifteen charges have reported collections for this cause, and that less than sixty dollars have been received.

In view of the good work that this society is doing, and its needs, we submit the following resolution:

Resolved, That we request our pastors, sometime during the month of June, to bring this subject to the attention of their respective congregations, lift collections, and send amount collected to Rev. T. H. Law, District Superintendent, at Spartanburg, S. C.

THOMAS RAYSOR, Chairman, for Committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MINUTES.

Your Committee beg leave to submit the following report:

We have examined the accounts of the publishers of the Minutes of last year and find them correct.

The Treasurer's report is as follows:

Received from Charges	$402.53
Received from Legal Conference	20.00
Received from the Publishers' balance from 1892	48.23
Total	$470.76

We nominate Revs. E. O. Watson and Samuel Lander to edit and publish the Minutes of this Conference, and recommend the publication of four thousand copies.

We further recommend that the sum of six hundred dollars be assessed upon the Conference for publishing the Minutes of next year.

Respectfully submitted.

B. M. GRIER, Chairman.
J. C. YONGUE, Secretary.

REPORT OF PUBLISHING COMMITTEE.

The Publishing Committee of the Southern Christian Advocate deem it unnecessary to make extended report.

Our paper has been seen from week to week by the members of this body, and all know its able editorial management and the fine materials used in its publication by the publisher. Dr. Kirkland has continued to give us a live and admirable paper, and Mr. Calvo has continued his businesslike method in its make-up and management. The circulation ought to be greater but continues to be good.

The royalty account has been audited and found correct, with proper vouchers.

The committee reminds the Conference that this is the time to make order for the future publication of our Advocate, and respectfully recommend the election of a new committee, and that same be authorized to contract for future publication of an organ.

WILLIAM C. POWER, Chairman.
JOHN O. WILLSON.

REPORT ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

The Committee on District Conference Journals beg leave to submit the following report:

The Charleston District Conference Journal passes our inspection with no adverse criticism. A record faithfully and neatly kept.

The Journal of Columbia District is correct, and, with the exception of a few blotches, is neatly written.

The Chester District Journal is businesslike and neat. We have no criticisms.

Florence District Journal is faithfully kept and is a model of its kind.

The Journal of Greenville District, as usual, is in very excellent condition. The records are not only correct in every particular, but businesslike.

The Marion District Journal is simply perfect.

The Journal of Orangeburg District is accurately kept, and well-written. Pale ink is used, however, and with some slight blurs, detracts from the general good appearance. We would call attention to a few awkward and incomplete sentences.

The Sumter District Journal is a model of excellence.

The Spartanburg District Record. In this journal, we find very many abbreviations and even initials for very important words, thereby disfiguring the records. We would recommend that every word be written out in full. The record is correct in the main, but not neatly written up.

R. HERBERT JONES, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

Notwithstanding the almost unprecedented financial stringency, and the fact that a large section of our territory was swept by storms, resulting in great destruction of life and property, the collections for Church Extension aggregate two thousand two hundred and twenty-two dollars and sixty-four cents for the year just closing. Under the circumstances, we think our people have done well. The amount at our disposal, however, is far too small to meet the pressing demands upon us. More than six thousand dollars have been asked for at this Conference and the petitions are urgent. We beg the preachers to preach the Church Extension cause to each church, and to seek to arouse a deeper interest in this important work.

We have received the following amounts from the districts :

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

There are times when we realize with especial emphasis the stability and vitality of the Kingdom of Christ among us—when we feel more sensibly the the goodness and grace of our convenant-keeping God. So it is with us at the close of this Conference year. It has been a hard year. Sometimes we knew not—some of us—how we could make ends meet,—how we could be able to make report at Conference. The future was very dark. But once again we have had assured to us that our God is better to us than all our deserts, and than all our fears. We have learned again the lesson that though crops fail, banks suspend, and the storm sweeps over our fair land, the Kingdom of Jesus stands unshaken. It is secure in the hearts of the faithful. Faith still lives. Zeal survives. The Church has a sure endowment in the consecration of her children. These reflections are especially appropriate in connection with the Domestic Missionary work of the Conference. Here the hard times have been most severely felt. But, thank God, we have been able to do the work. We have got through. One missionary says: "We are alive, and praise God for his abundant goodness." There has been no failure anywhere. At many points we have held our own. At others we have even advanced. Brethren, from the great deep of our hearts, we should thank God and take courage.

The following synopsis of the reports from the purely mission fields is now offered:

Parksville, Cokesbury District.—There has been a very decided growth here, in every way. Parksville has never known a better year. There have been thirty-five accessions and about forty conversions. There has been, also, considerable financial advancement.

Green Street and Brookland, Columbia District.—The pastor has labored with great zeal, and with considerable success. Seventy-three have been added to the membership the present year. Another church has been partly built, occupying a strategic point in the neighborhood of the city (Columbia).

Plantersville, Florence District.—This is a poor field. We have here a fine opportunity for usefulness. There has been progress during the year. Two new preaching places have been established where churches will be built.

St. Paul, Greenville District.—The pastor and congregation have had hard work to meet the demands upon them. It has been a remarkably good year spiritually. There is great unity and harmony in the church, promising well for the future.

Blue Ridge, Greenville District.—Here there has been considerable improvement. There has been a gain of fifty per cent. in membership. Four churches constitute the work so far as established. Of these, three have been built the present year, and the other repaired.

Cumberland, Charleston District.—This charge is doing well—especially so, considering the financial stringency, and the loss that has been sustained in the removal of valuable members. Sixty-two have been added—a net gain of fifty-three—this year.

Reevesville and St. Paul, Charleston District.—The year's work has been fairly successful.

Pee Dee Mission, Marion District.—There has been spiritual growth here. Not much can be expected from the charge, financially.

Upper Edisto, Orangeburg District.—This charge is growing, though the sparse population precludes the hope of large development at present.

Bethel and Duncan Chapel, Spartanburg District.—No previous year's record equals that of the past year. There has been a net gain of ninety-four, and a most encouraging financial exibit is made.

All the above were continued as missions, and the following new missions were made: Sumter City Mission, Port Royal, Florence, Salters, and Wateree.

It was decided to ask the Conference to order the months of March and April to be known as "Domestic Mission Months," when sermons shall be preached and collections pressed by all our pastors for this cause. We hope in this way to arouse our people to the importance of our home work, and relieve the great strain upon our missionaries in having to wait until the end of the year for almost the whole of their salaries.

We again urge our pastors to aid in the circulation of our missionary literature—our new "Review," the "Dike Builders," and "Sowers and Reapers" and the "Hand-book of Missions." Let us turn on the light. Let us appeal to the enlightened conscience of the people. God's promise guarantees the result.

IN MEMORIAM.

MEMOIRS OF PREACHERS WHO DIED IN 1893.

REV. WHITEFOORD SMITH, D. D.

NOVEMBER 7, 1812—APRIL 27, 1393.

Between the above dates, lived Rev. Whitefoord Smith, D. D., whose life was a benediction to his race.

His paternal great-grandmother was Charlotte Whitefoord, daughter of Colonel Charles Whitefoord of the Fifth Regiment of Foot, who was the son of Sir Adam Whitefoord, Baronet, Ayrshire, Scotland. He was the eldest son of Whitefoord Smith, Sr. His mother was sister to Rev. Peter Shand, D. D., who was Rector of Trinity, Protestant Episcopal Church, Columbia, S. C., for more than half a century. He was a noble, handsome youth, quick and vivacious, and gave early promise of what he was to be.

He received his elementary education in the city schools of Charleston, S. C. At an early age, he was matriculated as a student in the South Carolina College, then under the presidency of the celebrated Thomas Cooper, L.L. D.

He was graduated when as yet, he was but a beardless youth, but at a time when the political thermometer indicated fever heat. High-spirited and brave, he took an enthusiastic and intelligent interest in that which so intensely concerned his native State and country.

He entered the law office of his uncle, the Hon. Peter Shand, who afterward became the Rev. Peter Shand, D. D. But the hand of the Lord was upon him for a different sphere of service. Under a stern sense of duty, he abandoned what was then considered one of the most enchanting lines for distinction, and he became a self-sacrificing and self-consecrating minister of the Gospel. In doing this, he conferred not with flesh and blood, but he could say with St. Paul: "What things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. Yea, doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord." He was born into the kingdom of Christ in Columbia, S. C., April, 1830, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. Josiah Freeman being preacher in charge at the time. His change of heart was radical and thorough. Though brought up as a Scotch Presbyterian, he found the doctrines and policy of the Methodist Episcopal Church more in accord with his convictions, and without a struggle with a prejudiced will, or with a self-seeking spirit, he affiliated with the church of his convictions.

He had an excellent judgment. He would have made an able and incorruptible chancellor in equity. Though he did not give his mind and heart to secular affairs, yet his management of his private business, even in unfavorable conditions and circumstances, showed that he might have been trusted with the conduct of financial transactions if in early life he had chosen that line of pursuit.

Though his friendships were not numerously special, yet his friends safely trusted him, and no one associated with him, without a feeling that he was a lover of humanity, and the sympathizer with all that feel; even the beasts and birds had a claim upon his considerate regard.

His oratory was unique and almost matchless. His voice was as clear and sweet as the chime of silver bells, his taste was faultless, his style was pure. His speech was as the diamond glass that obstructs no ray of light that seeks passage through it. That prince of orators, W. C. Preston, said on one occasion, that he would like to exhibit Whitefoord Smith at the international oratorical contest in Paris as a specimen of American oratory. At another time, after lecturing fervidly on elocution and eloquence before his college class, he said: "Go and hear Whitefoord Smith for an illustration of all I have said."

He was more than the pulpit orator. He was the sound theologian and the devoted preacher of righteousness, whose aim was not human applause, but the glory of God and the salvation of souls. To this noble end, he consecrated his exalted and refined powers. He sought no great things for himself, but he was only content that the will of the Lord be done. So greatly was he appreciated that his adherents followed him from church to church in Charleston as his pastorate was transferred from one to another in that city. In order to have him all their own during his lifetime, they offered to build him a church on a plan similar to the one on which Beecher, Talmage and Deems served in more recent time. But his loyalty to his church and to her polity, caused him promptly to decline the offer.

He was in the convention which provided for the division of the Methodist Episcopal Church and for the formation of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and was one of a committee of three to prepare a new hymn book for the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. After that he was regularly elected to represent his Conference in the General Conference until his failing health made it important that he should be exempted from such long trips and prolnnged absences from home. At one time he was spoken of for the office of Bishop, but his failing health was a barrier which kept his name from the prominence which it would otherwise have had.

Shattered in nerve power, he sought relief from the active pastorate in the supernumerary relation. But one of his endowments and abilities could not remain long in retirement. He was soon called to a professorship in Wofford College, and he entered upon his duties there in 1856, where he served with distinguished ability and usefulness. In 1859, he accepted the presidency of the Columbia Female College. This large and peculiarly delicate responsibility was too much for his great conscientiousness and shattered nervous condition, and he resigned within a few months after taking charge there. He was promptly re-elected to a professorship in Wofford College, and he resumed his place in 1860, which he held with efficiency until 1885, when, on account of increasing infirmities, he resigned again. Then the Board of Trustees elected him Professor Emeritus, which relation he held until the time of his death. Thus for thirty-seven years, he was connected with the educational interests of the church. Few men have made their impress so decidedly upon their generation as did this pure man, ripe scholar, consecrated preacher and efficient professor.

He died in his home in Spartanburg, S. C., at an early hour, April 27th, 1893. He was fully conscious of the approach of death, and met it calmly and trustfully. It was evident that the last enemy was under his faith, and that the victory was his through Jesus Christ. He arranged for a simple ritual service at his grave. He asked that Toplady's hymn, 'The dying Christian to his soul," be recited to him, beginning:

"Deathless principle, arise;
Soar, thou native of the skies."

Some weeks before this, he asked that the "Martyr of Antioch," by Milman, be read to him:

"Sing to the Lord! no more the dead are laid
In cold despair beneath the cypress shade,
To sleep the eternal sleep that knows no morn;
There, eager still to burst death's brazen bands,
The angel of the resurrection stands;
While on its immortal pinions borne,
Following the breaker of the imprisoning tomb,
Forth springs the exulting soul, and shakes away its gloom.'

He called his surviving children around him and gently breathed his life out as a sleeping infant, without a pang or a struggle.

He was twice married. First to Martha Ann Mouzon, then to Eliza Catherine Power. He was the father of eight children, all of whom preceded him to the spirit world but two devoted daughters.

The following is a chronological schedule of his services:

He traveled Sandy River circuit in 1833; Darlington circuit, 1834. Stationed in Camden in 1835; in Augusta, Ga., 1836 and 1837; in Athens, Ga., in 1838 and 1839; in Charleston, S. C., in 1840; in Columbia, S. C., 1841 and 1842; Wilmington, N. C., 1843 and 1844. Presiding Elder of Wilmington district, 1845. Stationed in Charleston, Trinity, 1846; Charleston, Trinity, 1847; Cumberland, 1848; Cumberland, 1849; Columbia, 1850; Columbia, 1851; Charleston, Cumberland, 1852; Charleston, Cumberland, 1853; supernumerary, 1854; supernumerary, 1855; Professor in Wofford College, 1856 to 1859; President Columbia Female College, 1859; Professor in Wofford College, 1860 to 1885; Professor Emeritus in Wofford College, 1885 to 1893.

Thus lived and died one of the purest, wisest and best of men.

A. J. STOKES.

REV. WILLIAM H. LAWTON.

On August 30, 1821, Rev. William H. Lawton, was born in Beaufort, now Hampton county, S. C. His father was one of the most cultured, influential and wealthy men of the lower section of the State. His piety was of the purest and truest type. Upon his children—especially William—it made an indelible impression.

As William developed into the vigor of young manhood, he bore the image of Christ.

His educational training was finished at Randolph, Macon College, Va. He came home and began, under the most auspicious circumstances, what he fondly dreamed was his life work. To Virginia, he soon returned, and when he came back, he was accompanied by a lovely bride. Life opened before him in all its beauty and promise. Into his earthly Paradise, the "Man of Galilee" came, and whispered, "Go preach my Gospel." For the first and only time in his life he faltered, hesitated, and positively refused to obey. Like Jonah, he believed that he could escape from "the call." To accomplish this end, he moved to Florida. Here "the call" still rang in his ears. Bishop Andrew paid him a visit. During the visit, the Bishop said to him: "Brother William; do you not feel that you are called to preach?" The question stirred him like the sea is stirred by the storm-king. He told the Bishop the story of his life and confessed that he had fled to Florida to escape from God.

Before the Bishop left his home, William H. Lawton had resolved to hearken to the voice of God. He came back to his native state. The angel of death touched his wife, she vanished from his sight and entered heaven.

December 1852, he was received on trial into the South Carolina Conference; soon after this, he married a most excellent lady of Orangeburg county, who was his devoted helpmeet for the rest of his earthly life.

For more than forty years he demonstrated his call to the ministry by successful work. God set his seal upon his labors. His religion was of the genial, cheerful type. There was no gloom in his face or in his heart. His presence carried sunlight into thousands of homes. Through the deep waters he was called to go, yet even when the icy chill almost touched his heart, he would smile, and exclaim: "I know in whom I have believed." Truly he "rejoiced always."

His preaching was far above ordinary. His style was unique and original, sometimes he preached with wonderful power. The people listened, trembled, prayed, and rejoiced. Many a Pentecostal scene crowned his preaching. Hundreds now on the "plains of glory," and hundreds on their way, bless his name.

The termination of such a man's earthly career could not be anything else but a triumph. Invisible to mortal eyes, the chariot that bore Elijah to the sky, came to earth on November 3, 1893. When it returned on that self-same day, earth was poorer, for William H. Lawton had passed through the "gate of pearl," and was forever with God. For many years his memory will linger like the fragrance from the "Garden of God."

REV. JOHN B. PLATT.

Rev. John Baxter Platt, son of Daniel and Martha Platt, was born in Marion county, S. C., Feb. 20th, 1826. He was married to Mrs. Mary Duer, Nov. 1843. She died at Lynchburg, S. C., May 25th, 1877. There were three children born of this marriage. He was married to Miss Celestia Mims, May 19, 1880. He leaves four children of this marriage.

He was admitted on trial in the South Carolina Conference in November, 1865. His first appointment was as junior preacher on Conwayboro circuit; Rev. Geo. H. Wells being in charge. The next three years, 1867-69 he served the Buck Swamp charge. At the Conference for 1869, he was returned to Conwayboro circuit as preacher in charge. His subsequent appointments were as follows: Chesterfield circuit, 1871-72; Manning circuit, 1873-75; Lynchburg circuit, 1876-77; Providence circuit, 1878-80; Orangeburg circuit, 1881-83; Shiloh, 1884; Ridgeville, 1885-87, Tradesville, 1888-89; Boiling Springs, 1890-92; South Branchville, 1893.

From the hour of admission on trial in this Conference, until his death, January 17th, 1893, at the parsonage of the South Branchville circuit, he was regularly employed in the work of a Methodist preacher. He received his appointments cheerfully, and prosecuted his work faithfully and successfully. He was loyal to the Church in a marked degree. He gave his unreserved assent to the doctrines and polity of Methodism. He held his brethren in the ministry in high esteem, and his bearing toward them was with much courtesy and affection. He had a very high sense of honor, and was a Christian gentleman in the truest and best sense of that word. He exemplified integrity of character in every place and relation of his life. He was an officer in one of the South Carolina regiments during the late war, and was held in high esteem by his commander at arms, and was noted for his bravery on the field of battle. There was ever afterward about him much of the unaffected bearing of the soldier. It was doubtless due to this that he had several times told his wife that he wished to be buried wherever he should fall; and we buried him at Sandy Run church, a few yards from his parsonage. He wished to die in the effective ranks, and had his wish gratified.

He was a kind and faithful pastor—was blessed with excellent judgment in the management of the affairs of a pastoral charge. He always preached well—often with eloquence and great power, and was very successful in revival meetings. Many were converted under his preaching. He relied on the Holy Spirit to give success to all his work, and was much blessed with His presence in his ministry.

He served several of the best circuits in the Conference, and was true to every trust committed to his care. He was kind as a husband and father. He made a strong fight against disease, but was ready to respond to the call of the Master, to cease from his warfare and enter upon his reward.

During my last visit to him, in his sick-room, where we were conducting worship, he became wonderfully happy. Upon taking leave of him, I said I would make him another visit as soon as possible. Pointing upward, he said: "I will see you over the river."

He suffered a stroke of paralysis about ten days before his death, from which he gradually sank. He was my friend, true and trusted, and I expect to greet him "over the river."

J. WALTER DICKSON.

REV. JOHN W. McROY

Rev. John W. McRoy, was born in Kinston, N. C., Feb. 4th, 1837. When about two years of age, he was brought to Sumter, S. C., where he was brought up; where he was converted under the ministry of Rev. John A. Porter; and where he joined the church, giving his hand to Rev. A. G. Stacy; and where he joined the South Carolina Conference, on trial, November, 1859. He was continuously employed from that time until his death, in the regular itinerant work.

In all the charges he served, he made full proof of his ministry. He gave close attention to the details of his pastoral duties. He was blessed with good health and never spared himself, but was instant in season and out of season. His appointments ranged from the mountains to the seaboard. He accepted all his appointments in the spirit of the greatest loyalty, and went forth to labor with the motto: "As much as in me is." With this high and holy purpose ever animating him, he commanded the success his abundant labors so richly deserved.

As a pastor, he was thoughtful, tender, patient and faithful. His oversight extended to every member of his flock. He impressed upon his people, his solicitude for the spiritual welfare of every one.

His piety was without ostentation, but was cheerful, deep, continuous, abiding. His walk was consistent, and he impressed those who came into contact with him, that a man of God and of one work, was among them. He was far removed from all cant. He ever had the consciousness of his acceptance with God, through a living faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. He was humble, unpretentious and affectionate in his intercourse with his brethren of the ministry. He highly prized their friendship and love. He was never self-seeking, but willingly accepted whatever position the judgment of his brethren might assign him.

Being of Scotch descent, the sturdy virtures of that race were well represented in his life and character. He was a man of rare good judgment. His conclusions were reached cooly and deliberately, and were wise. He was a close student and a man of extensive and careful reading. He assimilated well all he read, and turned it to good account in the preparation of his sermons. These were prepared by him with much system and great care. During the last two years of his life, with great painstaking, he wrote out the greatest portion of the sermons he had preached during his previous ministry. His preaching was clear, logical and instructive; was often delivered with great power—attended with revivals, and was uniformly good—often, superior.

While all his pastorates were successful in a very marked degree, his pastorate of four years in the Graham's circuit, was the most evident of results of all his ministrations. It was during his term of service there that charge suddenly bounded forward from an obscure place to be one of the best charges in our Conference. The results of his labors there abide on every hand to this day.

In his home life, he was a kind husband and tender father. He was very happy in both his marriages. He was first married to Miss Amelia

J., daughter of Rev. John R. Coburn, Dec. 27, 1869. Four children of this marriage survive him—one, a minister, now on trial in this Conference. He was again married to Miss Lizzie A. Cade, Dec. 21. 1882, who ministered most tenderly to him in his last illness. One precious child of this marriage preceded him to heaven, and he lies buried by the dust of that one he loved so tenderly, in Rock Hill, S. C., a community to which he was most ardently attached.

At the Conference session of 1890, he was appointed to the Orangeburg circuit. This proved to be his last charge. At the same Conference, the writer was appointed to the Orangeburg District. Here, a mere Conference acquaintance, soon developed into purest friendship and most genuine affection. I came more fully to appreciate his sterling worth and symmetrical Christian character. I found in him, a most delightful companion, a true friend, a strong preacher, a successful pastor, a well-rounded man, in all the relations of life. It is one of my happiest and most profitable recollections, to have known, and been associated with John W. McRoy. He returned the kind attentions I was able to show him, with the heartiest appreciation and most sincere affection.

He returned from the last Annual Conference, sick, and gradually became more feeble, until the end, which came at the Orangeburg circuit parsonage, August 16, 1893. Though feeble, he continued to work until the latter part of March, when he reluctantly ceased to labor, and his ministry of thirty-three years was finished. Once, when on a visit to him, when he and I were alone in the room, he said: "Since I have been confined to this room, I have carefully examined again, all the foundations of my salvation, and it is all right." Often, towards the last he became gloriously happy. Suddenly, his heart ceased to beat, and his spirit passed on before us, to the other shore. By the grace of God, we will greet him over there. He charged me to bid his brethren at this Conference, farewell. Farewell, dear brother; a loving, though sad farewell.

BY BISHOP HAYGOOD.

12mo. 308 Pages. Well printed and bound. Price, $1.00.

What is in this book has grown out of many fireside talks with young men of promise who, having heard many strange noises as of debate and doubt, have fallen into some perplexities about the foundations of their belief.—Author's Preface.

The book is filled with good common sense. No man, young or old, who is hesitant in his faith in Christianity, should be left without it.—St. Louis Christian Advocate.

A RAMBLE AMONG SURNAMES.

BY REV. J. W. DANIEL, A. M.

Author of "The Girl in Checks," and "Out from Cæsar's Frown."

An Instructive and Amusing Book. The Price is 80c.

The author has gone into his work as one goes into a pastime. It is a gleesome search. This, with taste and aptitude, enables him to fill up his self-chosen pleasure-task with much that brings pleasure to his readers. One will find many keys here to history and to many things in the social department of human life. It cannot but be interesting if the reader will go about it with the spirit that prompted the author in furnishing the repast.—Western Christian Advocate.

Echoes from the Oracles!

By Rev. JOSEPH CROSS, D. D.,LL. D.,

Author of "Evangel," "Coals from the Altar," "Knight Banneret," "Pauline Charity," "Alone with God," "Old Wine and New," "Edens of Italy," "Days of My Years," etc.

12mo 323 Pages. Cloth. Price, $1.00.

Our older readers do not need to be told who Dr. Cross was. For many years he was an able and eloquent minister in our Church. The nineteen sermons before us are characteristically strong and eloquent. They are on such topics as "Atheistic Evolution," "The Covenant Token," "Living Wheels," "Life for a Look," etc. No one who begins to read them will be likely to quit till he has gone through the whole volume.—Nashville Christian Advocate.

JACK-KNIFE AND BRAMBLES.

What is in this book has grown out of many fireside talks with young men and women of promise who, having heard many strange noises as of debate and doubt, have fallen into perplexities about the foundations of their faith. As the good negro, "Uncle Jim," cut away briars and brambles with his big knife that "he might get at the tree" to be cut down, so this "Jack-Knife" is used to clear away from the subject of Christianity some briars, brambles and poison-oak, much in the way.—From Preface.

SOME NOTICES AMONG MANY.

The style of treatment is Spurgeon's at his best, in his most imaginative, picturesque mood, and all done graciously and sensibly.—N. Y. Independent.

This is perhaps the author's best book. He is one of the people and writes and talks to and for the people. His sentences are loaded with the best thought, and his logic is as true to the mark as a rifle ball. He not only shoots straight, but hits hard—Texas Christian Advocate.

Every chapter contains invaluable principles—Boston Daily Herald.

A book people will read. It is full of life and vigor: the movement of the author is bold and fearless, triumphant.—Dr. J. W. Lee, in Atlanta Constitution.

It is the clearest and most satisfactory refutation of infidelity in its various forms and phases; the most lucid defense of the divine order of revelation and its method with men that we have seen. It is fascinating as a story and yet as full of Gospel truth as any book of its size in print.—Central Methodist.

Every one will be better for reading "Jack-Knife and Brambles."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

We have no hesitation in commending this book; the author is a healthy writer and very suggestive.—New York Herald.

By all odds the richest, rarest, raciest book on the themes it discusses that has appeared in twenty years.—Dr. G. G. Smith, in Texas Advocate,
